Online Contributions

Anyone interested in making their weekly contributions to St. Philip Neri electronically may call the Parish Pay program at 1-866-Parish1 or visit www.parishpay.com. The parish benefits greatly from the regularity of the system and detaches the issue of church support from such factors as the weather, vacations, etc.

Collection Report

Last weekend's first collection totaled $4037.

Maintenance Collection

The monthly second collection for the maintenance and repairs is taken this weekend. We ask you to be mindful of the parish's need for your real generosity. Help us deal with our latest unexpected expense ($6850.00) in having to update the electrical boxes in the rectory boiler room. The work was needed to accommodate the new cables Con Edison had to install to replace very old lines that failed two weekends ago, leaving half the rectory in darkness.

Food Collection

Dear St. Philip Neri Parishioners,

May the Lord give you His Peace! Several times in the past your parish has collected food for our "Pater Noster" food pantry, and we are always grateful for your generosity. As we approach Thanksgiving, we are hoping to provide our neighbors with food for special meal and we wanted to share our specific need for: can of corn, green beans, sweet potatoes, gravy and cranberry sauce; boxes of mashed potatoes and stuffing; and non-refrigerated dessert items. We are most happy to receive any contribution of non-perishable food or financial contributions for turkeys. We will gladly receive these items through the weekend of November 14th and 15th. Thank you!

We pray that God will reward your generosity abundantly.

Gratefully in Jesus,
 The Franciscan Sisters of the Renewal

November: Month of the Holy Souls

The parish visitors of Mary Immaculate, a wonderful small community of Sisters with a convent here in the Bronx, recently sent a letter inviting the recipients to send the names of their deceased loved ones to the sisters for their prayers. The letter encourages the use of the following prayer of St. Gertrude the Great, a 13th century Benedictine nun. According to tradition, our Lord promised St. Gertrude that 1000 souls would be released from purgatory each time it is said devoutly:

Eternal Father, I offer thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the whole world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen

All Souls Indulgence

The Sisters also remind us that from November 1st to the 8th an indulgence applicable to a soul in purgatory may be gained under these conditions: be in the state of grace; visit a church or oratory (better still-attend mass there) say one "Our Father" and the "Creed," pray for the Holy Father's intentions and make a good confession within about 20 days of Alls Soul's Day.

All Souls Novena

A novena of nine masses for the Holy Souls began this weekend. Those who use church offering envelopes will have received in their packets an envelope on which to write the names of those they wish to be remembered. A supply of envelopes can be found in the church's vestibule. The names of those enrolled in the novena are kept near the altar during the month of November.

God's Love We Deliver

St. Philip Neri will host once more the meal deliveries through God's Love We Deliver Program on both Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve and Morning. This is a wonderful opportunity to serve our Lord Jesus Christ by giving back a little bit our time to serve the most in need. Drivers, co-pilots and packers are needed! If you or anyone you know is interested please contact the rectory or Maria Mejía at 646-400-1800. "We will serve the Lord." Josh 24:24

Our Lady of the Divine Providence

On Sunday, November 15 at 4pm. the Archdiocesan Committee for Nuestra Señora de la Divina Providencia will sponsor the 34th annual mass in honor of Our Lady of Divine Providence, patroness of Puerto Rico. The committee will also hold its 30th annual banquet on Friday November 13 at the Astoria World Manor. The dinner will be preceded by a cocktail hour and there will be an open bar all evening. Music will be provided by Los Cachinbas. The tickets are priced at $75 per person. Donaciones de Comida

Queridos Hermanos/as de la parroquia San Felipe Neri

¡La paz del Señor este con ustedes! En el pasado la parroquia San Felipe Neri nos ha brindado su ayuda al generosamente recaudar comida para nuestro "Pater Noster" dispensario de comida y como siempre les agradecemos su ayuda. El día de Acción de Gracias se acerca, y esperamos que este año nos puedan ayudar nuevamente y así proveer a nuestros hermanos necesitados con una comida especial. Estos son algunos de los alimentos en específico: latas de maíz, ejotes, batatas, salsa de arándanos y cajas de puré de papa y relleno; también comida no perecedera. Al igual aquellos que puedan contribuir con la compra de pavos o ayuda financiero se lo agradecemos. Estaremos aceptando donaciones durante el fin de semana del 14 y 15 de noviembre. ¡Muchísimas Gracias!

Que Dios los bendiga y los recompense con abundancia.

Sinceramente en Cristo,
Las Hermanas Franciscanas de la Renovación

Noviembre mes de todos los Santos Difuntos

Recientemente las hermanas invitadas a la parroquia de María Inmaculada, una pequeña y grandiosa comunidad cual cuenta con un convento aquí en el Bronx, enviaron una carta invitando a todos a enviar los nombres de sus seres queridos ya fallecidos a las hermanas por sus oraciones. En la carta las hermanas fomentan el rezar la oración por Santa Gertrudis La Grande, monja benedictina del siglo 13. Según la tradición, el Señor prometió a Santa Gertrudis la liberación de 1000 ánimas del purgatorio cada vez que se reza con devoción la siguiente oración:

Padre eterno, yo te ofrezco la preciosísima Sangre de tu Divino Hijo Jesús, en unión con las misas celebradas hoy día a través del mundo por todas las benditas ánimas del purgatorio. Por todos los pecadores del mundo. Por los pecadores en la Iglesia universal, por aquellos en propia casa y dentro de mi familia. Amen.

Las hermanas también mencionan que se puede ofrecer una oración a las ánimas del purgatorio durante el 1º al 8 de noviembre. Un "Padre Nuestro," "El Credo" o pidiendo por las intenciones del Santo Papa y por medio de la confesión, 20 días antes de la conmemoración de los Fieles Difuntos.

Novena para todos los fieles difuntos

Empezando el 31 de octubre se llevaran a cabo la novena para todos los fieles difuntos en San Felipe Neri. Aquellos que reciben sobres, encontraran en su paquete un sobre designado para escribir los nombres de sus seres queridos que han dejado a este mundo. En el vestíbulo de la iglesia encontraran un abastecimiento de sobres para aquellos feligreses que deseen recordar a sus fieles difuntos. Los nombres de los fallecidos se mantendrán cerca del altar durante el mes de noviembre

THE LAST THINGS

During November we are particularly conscious of the debt of charity we owe not only towards our deceased relatives and friends but to all of the faithful departed. November, therefore, is an opportune time to review the great truths about what we call "the Last Things," that is, Death, the Particular Judgment, Purgatory, Heaven and the Final Judgment. The citations below are from the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Death:

The Christian who unites his own death to the death of Jesus views it as a step towards him and an entrance into eternal life. CCC #1020

The Particular Judgment:

Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ at his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. CCC#1021 (See Luke 16:22, 23:24; Matthew

Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven—through purification or immediately,—or immediate and everlasting damnation. CCC#1022:

Heaven:

Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live forever with Christ. They are like God forever, for they "see him as he is," face to face. CCC#1023 (See 1 John 3:2, 1 Corinthians 13:12, Revelations 22:4)

This perfect life with the Most Holy Trinity—this communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels and all the blessed—is called CCC#1024

God cannot be seen as he is, unless he himself opens up his mystery to man's immediate contemplation and gives him the capacity for it. The Church calls this contemplation of God in his heavenly glory "the beatific vision." CCC#1026

Purgatory:

All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo a purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. CCC#1030

[In addition to by reference to certain texts of Scripture which speak of a cleansing fire, such as 1 Cor 3:15 and 1 Peter 1:7] this teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture. CCC#1031 (See Marc 12:46)

Hell:

We cannot be united with God unless we freely choose to love him. But we cannot love God if we sin gravely against him...To die in mortal sin without repenting and accepting God's merciful love means remaining separated from him forever by our own free choice. This state of definitive self-exclusion from communion with God is called "hell." CCC#1033

Final Judgment:

Postponed until next week!
