Online Contributions

Anyone interested in making their weekly contributions to St. Philip Neri electronically may call the Parish Pay program at 1-866-Parish1 or visit www.parishpay.com. The parish benefits greatly from the regularity of the system and detaches the issue of church support from such factors as the weather, vacations, etc

Collection Report

Last weekend's first collection totaled $4192.62.

Maintenance Collection

The second collection was truly impressive; $2380. The parish is deeply indebted to those who responded with extraordinary generosity to our appeal for help to meet the cost of restoring proper electrical service to the rectory.

Thank you! With grand appreciation we acknowledge the following recent contributions from our parish societies: $100 from the Charismatic Prayer Circle, $200 from the Altigracia Committee and $400 from the Ladies of the Sacred Heart

Food Collection

Again this year we will ask contributions of non-perishable food to send to the Franciscan Sisters of the Renewal on Bainbridge Avenue for their Thanksgiving pantry. Check your shelves and perhaps as you shop for your own household, pick up a few items to share with the needy.

Prayer for November

Eternal Father, I offer thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the whole world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen

Flocknotes

The Archdiocese has a new communications medium, "Flocknotes." By submitting your cell phone number you can receive text messages alerting you to breaking news and reminders. You can also receive daily readings from the Gospels, the Catechism and from Sr. Faustina's diary. Once we get our act together, our parish can use it, for example, to remind member of a particular parish society of upcoming meetings or to share whatever news. A simple way to sign up would be to write your cell phone number and/or email address on your church envelope. Another way is to fill one of the cards which can be found in the church lobby and drop it off in the collection basket or in one of the shrine boxes.

Baby Bottle Drive

Expectant Mother Care Frontline Centers serve thousands of women every year who find themselves pregnant under difficult circumstances. The centers provide free testing, ultrasound and both spiritual and practical assistance. In the church this weekend you will find baby bottles that you can use to save up your loose coins and small bills. We hope that the bottles can be returned by December 8th the feast of the Immaculate Conception. We will make sure that they are forwarded to Expectant Mother Care.

God's Love We Deliver

St. Philip Neri will host once more the meal deliveries through God's Love We Deliver Program on both Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve and Morning. This is a wonderful opportunity to serve our Lord Jesus Christ by giving back a little bit our time to serve the most in need. Drivers, co-pilots and packers are needed! If you or anyone you know is interested please contact the rectory or Maria Mejía at 646-400-1800. "We will serve the Lord." Josh 24:24

THE LAST THINGS

During November we are particularly conscious of the debt of charity we owe not only towards our deceased relatives and friends but to all of the faithful departed. November, therefore, is an opportune time to review the great truths about what we call "the Last Things," that is, Death, the Particular Judgment, Purgatory, Heaven and the Final Judgment. The citations below are from the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Death:

CCC #1020: The Christian who unites his own death to the death of Jesus views it as a step towards him and an entrance into eternal life.

The Particular Judgment:

CCC#1021: Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ at his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. (See Luke 16:22, 23:24; Matthew 16:26; and other texts) CCC#1022: Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven—through a purification or immediately,—or immediate and everlasting damnation.

Heaven:

CCC#1023: Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live forever with Christ. They are like God forever, for they "see him as he is," face to face. (See 1 John 3:2, 1 Corinthians 13:12, Revelations 22:4) CCC#1024: This perfect life with the Most Holy Trinity—this communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels and all the blessed—is called "heaven." CCC#1026: God cannot be seen as he is, unless he himself opens up his mystery to man's immediate contemplation and gives him the capacity for it. The Church calls this contemplation of God in his heavenly glory "the beatific vision."

Purgatory

CCC#1030: All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo a purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. CCC#1031: [In addition to by reference to certain texts of Scripture which speak of a cleansing fire, such as 1 Cor 3:15 and 1 Peter 1:7] this teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture. See Marc 12:46)

Hell:

CCC#1033: We cannot be united with God unless we freely choose to love him. But we cannot love God if we sin gravely against him...To die in mortal sin without repenting and accepting God's merciful love means remaining separated from him forever by our own free choice. This state of definitive self-exclusion from communion with God is called "hell."
